(Methodist & United Reformed)

SERVICES FOR SUNDAY APRIL 30th 2017 and notices for the coming week

Our Gospel reading today is the familiar and beautiful story, 2000 years ago, of two of Jesus' disciples on the road to Emmaus. It must have been the longest day of their lives. They were going home. Home, because there was nothing else to do. Their hopes were dashed. Their dreams destroyed. Their future obliterated. They were forlorn and there was nothing for them to do but to return to Emmaus, lick their wounds and try to figure out what to do with their lives now, now that Jesus was dead.

But they were joined by a third person, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them and talked with them. They did not recognise him - until he ate with them and broke bread with them. Move on to today. Is not this story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus really the story of every Christian? There are times as we journey through life when we are completely oblivious to Christ's presence with us. Then we read or hear a scripture passage or come to Communion and we discover anew Christ's abiding presence and realise that he has been with us all along, though we failed to recognise his presence.

Meet us Lord on the road to Emmaus. Guide us on the path to our destination and renew our strength as we continue to walk and commune with you. Open our eyes so we see the signs of your presence around us. Open our hearts so we may receive your peace and love; and empower us to pass on to others the grace you have shared with us so freely. Amen.
